Defined Peruvian legal work

Foreign counsel can commission a defined legal product, not merely a general research response. Each instruction is screened for competence, conflicts, facts, documents, deadlines and requested use.

01 Peruvian-law expert opinions

Source-based legal opinions for foreign proceedings. Output: structured report with questions, authorities, analysis, limitations and conclusions.

02 Foreign judgment recognition

Assessment of exequatur, treaty or reciprocity issues and procedural route. Output: documentary review and defined Peru-side steps.

03 Cross-border family & estates

Civil status, divorce, succession, heirs, wills and registry effects under Peruvian law. Output: issue-specific memorandum.

04 Asset & registry due diligence

Lawful searches and review of SUNARP and other appropriate sources. Output: documented findings with source and scope limitations.

05 Service of foreign court papers

Assessment and coordination of appropriate Peru-side delivery and evidence. Output: documented service record, subject to foreign-court rules.

06 Local institutional coordination

Defined work involving Peruvian courts, notaries, registries or public authorities. Output: agreed actions and written status updates.

WHAT A WRITTEN LEGAL OPINION CAN CONTAIN

Framed questions / facts supplied / applicable Peruvian law / relevant source authorities / numbered conclusions / limitations and assumptions.

Scope safeguard. Professional opinions concern Peruvian law. The instructing firm remains responsible for its jurisdiction's procedure, admissibility and filing requirements. Expert format, independence statements, translations, oral participation and local execution are assessed case by case.

How to instruct Peruvian counsel

Begin with a concise, non-confidential enquiry. The purpose is to establish the Peruvian-law question, potential conflicts, relevant deadline and requested deliverable before accepting instructions.

IN YOUR INITIAL ENQUIRY, PLEASE INCLUDE

01 Jurisdiction / court
Country, tribunal, proceeding or transaction type.

02 Deadline
Hearing, filing or transaction date; urgency.

03 Legal question
Precise Peruvian-law issue to be answered.

04 Peruvian connection
Relevant persons, documents, assets or events.

05 Document inventory
Describe available documents; do not attach full files.

06 Requested output
Opinion, memorandum, review or coordinated action.

ENGAGEMENT SEQUENCE

01 Enquiry — 02 Conflict check — 03 Written scope — 04 Terms & fee — 05 Delivery

Fees, currency, expenses and any advance payment are agreed in the written proposal for each matter. Engagements may be scoped by a defined task or another agreed arrangement.

COMMUNICATION / PRACTICAL LIMITS

English: written professional correspondence, memoranda and reports. Oral communication: primarily Spanish; interpreter arrangements assessed separately. Time zone: Lima, Peru (UTC−5). Delivery model: 100% remote coordination; physical acts depend on the authority and mandate.
